BOUTWELL.

Mr. Boutwell, Grant's Secretary of the Treasury, has made two speeches in North Carolina this week—one at Greensboro, on Wednesday, and one at Charlotte on Thursday.
He read from a speech which he had printed before he left Washington. His defence of his management of the fiscal department of the Government was doubtless highly edifying to his auditors—three-fourths of whom were negroes.

After delivering himself of his two harangues, Boutwell took his departure from this State, and is now safely ensconced in his comfortable berth in Washington.

It is a sad commentary on the political degeneracy of the times when officers, high in position, desert their posts of duty and the public service, to take part in a local election contest. Especially is such conduct reprehensible in a member of the Cabinet of a President who is a candidate for re-election. Such a thing was never before heard of until Akerman came to this State last year, and made a Radical speech at Weldon. But the Secretary has returned to Washington City. His visit here was a signal and notorious failure. We do not believe his trip benefited his party a single vote. Our people are not disposed to give much heed to Grant's understrappers.

Who sold four hundred and thirty thousand dollars of Railroad stock belonging to the Educational Fund for one hundred and fifty-eight thousand dollars, and invested this sum in worthless Special tax bonds? The Radical Treasurer, D. A. Jenkins, Pilgrim Ashley & Co.

Remember that the sacred School Fund was invested in worthless Special tax bonds after Judge Pearson had decided these Bonds to be null and void—and that this investment was made to help along the swindlers, by trying to create the impression that the bonds were good.

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED BY ALL THE FRIENDS OF REFORM AND GOOD GOVERNMENT.

Go to the polls and vote, rain or shine—vote in all the four boxes, for State ticket, for Congress, for Assembly and for County officers.

Before the day of election see that your name is on the registration books in your own township, and if you never voted before in that township, have it registered.

See that no illegal votes be given, and challenge every man that you think has no right to vote.

A voter must be 21 years of age, have been a citizen of the State one year, and resided in the township where he votes 30 days before the election.

See that all your neighbors on our side who have a right to vote, are at the polls on the day of election.

Commit no violence and preserve order, but firmly maintain your own right to vote yourself, and see that no fraudulent or illegal votes are allowed to be given.

From this and the day of election, spend all the time you can in persuading our friends to go to the polls on the first of August.

And lastly be sure to vote yourself, and vote early.

THE DEAD COME TO LIFE—A SPEECH OF JIM HARRIS' CAPITAL.

At a Radical meeting at Metropolitan Hall in this city last Tuesday, Jim Harris, colored, the Radical candidate for the Senate, wrought up the passions of his hearers to the highest pitch by the announcement, that Lewis Cook, a colored man, had been murdered by a white man, because he had declared himself in favor of Grant.

We publish below a letter from Mr. Spiers, of Halifax county, which nails this sensation to the counter:

HALIFAX, N. C., July 18, 1872.
Messrs. Editors:

GENTS:—I saw several statements in your paper in regard to Lewis Cook, the man that was cut. I went to see Lewis this morning, found him at work. He says he did not declare himself for Grant, Greeley, or any one the day he was cut. His wound proved to be slight.

Most Respectfully,
R. P. SPIERS.

P. S.—If necessary, I will append my affidavit to the above.
Who collected over one million dollars in 1869, a large amount of which was for education purposes, and yet failed to establish Public Schools? The Radicals.

ANOTHER FALSEHOOD NAILED.

The Era charges that Sweeney, while President of the W. N. C. R. Co., presented Judge Merrimon with the house the Judge now lives in. The Era is absolutely reckless in its charges against the candidates of the Conservative party. It does not seem to stickle at anything.

Sweeney was not elected President of the Railroad until October 15, 1868. The bill, making an appropriation of Special Tax bonds for the aid of that Railroad passed January 20, 1869. The Railroad funds were not committed until after the election of Sweeney as President.

Now the Jeed on file in book 27, page 30, Records of Wake county, shows that Judge Merrimon, on the 2d day of May, 1868, bought the house from its owner, Mr. Everard Hall, and paid for it $3,100 in cash.

At that time Gov. Worth was occupying the Executive chair of North Carolina. Radical politicians had not then possessed themselves of the Government of North Carolina, through fraud and military violence.

The stealing Legislature had not met; Sweeney had not then spent his $241,000 to pay the men Littlefield and Dewees had bribed.

Holden dates the establishment of the swindling Government, from the 4th day of July, 1868. Merrimon's house was bought and paid for according to the deed recorded at that time, two months before that body of cultures assembled; nearly six months before the election of Sweeney to the Presidency of the Railroad, and nearly eight months before the passage of the bill authorizing the issue of the Special Tax Bonds!

The Era however, will not correct its misstatement. We do not expect that paper would do justice after its persistent misrepresentation of our candidate. The Era makes groundless charges, and still after the falsehoods are exposed, it keeps the charges standing from day to day and will not acknowledge itself in error!

Whose acts of usurpation and lawlessness, in regard to the penal and charitable institutions of the State caused a riot in the Penitentiary—in which the convict Hartfield was killed? Tod R. Caldwell.

Who has shown himself the enemy of civil law—of Constitutional liberty—and of the personal rights of the citizen? Tod R. Caldwell.

Who was President of the Senate when all the swindling by Littlefield & Co., was done in this State? Tod R. Caldwell.

Who threatened with starvation the poor unfortunate inmates in the charitable State institutions? Tod R. Caldwell.

Who recommended that the University should be shut up and the buildings leased out? Tod R. Caldwell.

ANOTHER BUBBLE EXPLODED!

SPECIMEN OF RADICAL FALSEHOODS AGAINST JUDGE MERRIMON.

The Raleigh Era, the Radical organ in North Carolina, keeps standing in its columns, the most unfounded charges against Judge Merrimon. Among other things, that paper charges that "A. S. Merrimon, Democratic candidate for Governor, while Solicitor, had indicted in the County of Yancey, some forty women, the wives of Confederate soldiers, for taking Government rations from keeping them and their children from starving to death, while their husbands and fathers were in the trenches around Richmond, and he, Merrimon, would not compromise the matter until he received his fee, which was four dollars in each case."

From the letter which we publish below from Col. D. Coleman, of Buncombe, it will be seen that the above is a falsehood out of whole cloth.

The Era ought to hide its head in shame after thus so shamelessly slandering an innocent man.

People of North Carolina, what do you think of a party that will resort to such means to defeat our candidates!

July 17, 1872.

EDITOR CITIZEN:—Maj. Graham and I spoke at Burnsville day before yesterday. Speaking commenced just after our arrival. I had not time, therefore, to search the Clerks office and Record, for evidence of the alleged indictment of the "Forty wives of Confederate Soldiers" by Judge Merrimon while Solicitor. A highly respectable gentleman, however, had made such search, (as had others, as he informed me,) and handed me the minutes of the Court with the pages marked.) I read the entries on the record from the speaker's stand, and examined, before the audience, a witness marked on the bill, and sent to Grand Jury at Spring Term, 1866, and also a member of said Grand Jury.

From the record, and their evidence, it appeared that the bill in question, was sent by me, then solicitor, at said Spring term, 1866, against 14 persons; six or seven being women, (leaving just a copy of their names) one only being the wife of a Confederate soldier in service when the trespass was committed. The indictment was "forcible trespass." The only disposition of it that appeared by the record, or any one knew of, was at all term 1866, when Judge Merrimon was holding the courts of another circuit. I have no reason to suppose he knew any thing whatever of the prosecution. It is a very rare chance that a Judge knows of a solicitor sending any particular bill. The record showed on all term 1866, one of the defendants secured his costs; and perhaps, (the entry being doubtful,) that three or four others submitted, but nothing appears as to their cost, and no judgment appears. The record does not show what became of the case afterwards. I do not recollect, and found no one who could tell me.

No one seems to have been in custody, or any one did.

The husband of one of the defendants who came to me after the speaking, corroborated the statement of the others, as to the time when the bill was sent—said it was at Spring Term, 1866, and that he did not pay any one that he knew of, for his wife.

The propriety of my action is not in question. The audience seemed entirely satisfied with it.

Respectfully,
D. COLEMAN.

REMEMBER that Caldwell attended the Morganton Convention and permitted a fraudulent issue of stock to allow the Company to organize against the strenuous efforts of Vance and Merrimon.

This bogus stock was issued in the interest of Sweeney!

WHERE is the Agricultural College for which Congress gave us land scrip, that was sold for $125,000? It went into Radical hands. They invested it in special Tax Bonds, for the benefit of the swindlers.

PUBLIC printing for two years under Radical rule amounted to $69,185.49. Under Conservative rule for two years it will be not more than $34,292.01.

The expenses of administering the State government, except for Public Charities, under Conservative rule, was less than one-half what it was under Radical rule.

LETTER OF SENATOR THURMAN.

The following patriotic letter from Senator Thurman to Hon. M. W. Ransom, was read at the great mass meeting in this city last Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11, 1872.
I most sincerely regret that it is impossible for me to accept your invitation to visit North Carolina and speak to the people. The ill health of a member of my family puts it out of my power to do so.

The approaching election in your State is of national importance. If the Democratic and Liberal party succeed in that election, it may safely be predicted that Horace Greeley will be the next President of the United States. Then we may hope to see an end of the violence and disregard of the Constitution that has marked the course of the government since the present Administration came into power.

In truth

now before the people is, Shall we have constitutional government or a government of mere force and corruption? The leaders of the dominant party seem to have no faith in anything but force and corruption.

If they ever had confidence in man they seem wholly to have lost it. If they ever believed in the persuasive and beneficent influence of reason and peace they seem to have cast their belief away. Hence their harsh measures of legislation and administration, and their never ceasing efforts to misrepresent the condition of the South, and to keep alive the bitterness engendered by the war. But I confidently believe that the time has at length come when the American people have resolved to have peace in fact and not merely in name. They have too long been deluded by cries of "Let us have peace" when peace was not intended. They now mean to have the reality and not the shadow. They mean to have and not despotism. They mean to teach their rulers that the interests of the people are of higher moment than the selfish interests of a party. And they mean that Reform shall not be a mere idle word, but shall be an existing fact.

Upon no other theory can the union that has taken place of the elements of opposition to the Administration be accounted for. It is not a union of politicians or a coalition of schemes. On the contrary, it is a result of a movement of the people themselves that has overwhelmed mere politicians and schemers.

It means this, and nothing less than this, that the people are resolved to have a change of administration, and will elect such impracticable men or impracticable theories stand in the way of success. It does not mean an abandonment of principle, but it does mean that common sense shall prevail.

Once more regretting that I cannot be with you at your meeting,

I am yours, truly,
A. G. THURMAN.

To Hon. Matt W. Ransom, Weldon, N. C.

REMEMBER that our beautiful capital was converted into a den of iniquity during the reign of Littlefield, when Holden was Governor, Caldwell President of the Senate and Brogden a Senator.

The next Legislature will have to vote on the proposed constitutional amendments as a whole. Let the people vote only for those candidates who are pledged to support all the amendments.

WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE DEMOCRATIC PRESS OF THE STATE TO THE NOTICE IN OUR PAPER OVER THE STATE TICKET, AT THE HEAD OF OUR EDITORIAL COLUMNS.

CHALLENGERS.

If there are no challengers appointed in your townships, let each Conservative voter constitute himself a Committee of one to see that no illegal vote is cast.

REMEMBER that no one can register on election day. See that your name is registered before that day.

Who suggested to the negroes to agencies, as will kill the children of the white people with fear?

Tod R. Caldwell and the Radical members of the Legislature of 1869.

Who put in the State Constitution a clause, requiring the Legislature to impose a tax on all kinds of property owned by poor men—and excluding three hundred dollars worth, owned chiefly by the rich? The Radicals.

The Radicals from 1868 to 1870, paid out only thirty-eight thousand dollars for the support of Public Schools; while the Conservatives in one year expended one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars for the public instruction of both races—colored as well as white.

WHAT party has, at one fell blow, broken down the University of the State and closed its doors to the young men of North Carolina? The Radical party.

Who has recklessly usurped the power to suspend statute after statute of the Legislature, in violation of his oath of office, and in defiance of the Constitution and laws of the State? Tod R. Caldwell.

STATE MATTERS.

Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

The Lefter says there will be a rail road from Wilson to Greenville, soon.

HAIL POOLE, colored, of Henderson county, is a candidate on the Conservative ticket for County Commissioner.

The Rutherfordford Indicator says: Wheat is turning out better than was anticipated, and the prospect for a large crop of corn was never better than now.

MR. ELLIS D. GODDY, of Wadesboro, received a pistol wound in the leg a few days ago by the accidental discharge of a pistol belonging to Mr. W. C. Burdick, which fell from his breast pocket on the floor of the Court House.

The Hickory Tavern Engle says: From all parts of Catawba and adjoining counties we hear of heavy wheat crops. More wheat has been made this year it is believed, than in any other since 1861.

The Charlotte Observer says: The prospects now are, that the crop of this country will be larger than for quite a number of years before. Cotton is also said to be looking fine, and a large yield is now anticipated.

The Goldsboro Messenger says: "S. A. Bushee, a colored man of some intelligence in Greene county, and decidedly the 'brains' and leader of the Radical party in that section, has avowed himself openly for Horace Greeley. He declares Greeley, a forty year Republican, to Grant, a four year accidental Republican." Sensible.

The Tarboro' Southerner says: The Radical sheet published at Raleigh, contained a lying account of the negro kullux outrage in this place on the 4th of July. It is from the pen of an anonymous scribbler who dares to back his assertions with his name.

It is simply sufficient to brand the whole account as a lie from beginning to end.

The Pee Dee Herald says: In the second disturbance which occurred on last Saturday while Col. Bennett was speaking, in the attempt at enforcing order, Ned Plunkett, col., received a slight wound upon the forehead. We were gratified to learn that Ned was engaged in helping to keep down disorder, and regret that he was hurt in the attempt.

The Tarboro' Southerner says: It is with feelings of the most profound sorrow that we hear of the sad affliction that has befallen one of our most esteemed and highly respected fellow countrymen.

On Saturday morning last Mr. R. D. Wimberly was stricken down with paralysis, and since then has been entirely helpless. This is a sad blow to his large circle of friends and relatives, for he was a man universally beloved and esteemed by all. As a citizen he was known as one of the most useful and influential in the county, and in this sad affliction he has the deepest sympathy of all the good people of Edgecombe.

The Winston Sentinel says: The news from Stokes is of the most cheering character. The Republicans are divided and disheartened, while the Conservatives are unanimous and enthusiastic and are determined to give the entire ticket 500 majority.

Davie, too, is fully aroused, and is confident of electing the whole Conservative ticket.

Our news from other points is equally cheering. The West is fully aroused to the importance of this election, and will give increased majorities for our candidates. Merrimon's majority will be at least 10,000.

THE RADICAL CANDIDATE FOR VICE-PRESIDENT AT WILSON.

Speeches by Thomas, Radical, and Kitchen, Conservative Candidate for Congress—Thomas Comes off Second Best—Tanner Editor of Senator Wilson the Radical Candidate for Vice-President—Characteristic Speech of Pool—The Democrats Thoroughly Aroused.

WILSON, N. C., July 18, 1872.

It has been published in the papers and by large and showy bills posted everywhere hereabout, for the last ten days that the Hon. John Pool and Senator Wilson would address the people of this place on the 17th, and yesterday came, and lo! the mountains, brooks and rivulets sent forth their torrents, but the multitude were not here. About 200 negroes and as many Democrats, the latter attending only through idle curiosity, made up the great uprising of the people to hear the immaculate.

To attempt even a synopsis of their remarks would, I fear, be repeating an ill story that has grown threadbare long and continued use.

Charles R. Thomas, was the first speaker, and if he made a single point he did not see it. Even the negroes failed to appreciate his coarse, vulgar language. His most signal failure to forestall the argument of Capt. Kitchen, the Democratic nominee, as he attempted to do, was regarded as the best joke of the day. He did not expect to be told that he appointed the son of a New Yorker to Annapolis, instead of a native North Carolinian, who had never put his foot on the soil of our State, nor did he suppose it was known that when the District Convention met here that the negro was good enough to eat, drink, smoke and sleep with him until his nomination was secured, when he and the last white man of them changed to a different hotel, leaving the poor negroes alone in their glory.

Suffice it to say that he was handled roughly by our gallant standard bearer, and shown up in his true colors. His record, as given by Capt. Kitchen, shows that every breeze has wrought a change when it was laden with the sweet perfume of office. Capt. Kitchen's said to be the happiest effort of his life, and fully sustained his reputation as a speaker of no mean merit.

Senator Wilson, candidate for Vice-President, was next introduced, and as we expected from him a logical and dignified speech upon the political issues of the day, we were very much disappointed to hear so much of the demagogue. His stock and capital is largely made up of attempts to array one class against another. He shed crocodile tears over the suicide of the great Democratic party, but it was evident he watched with fear and trembling, the adversary who, in next November, will be guilty of a murder in the first degree of the party to which he belongs, and yet says he, it is of known North Mr. Greeley is a candidate; we, of course, were edited to hear this news, coming from a Northern man. The presumption is, he learned it upon his arrival in this State. He spoke about an hour and a quarter in this same style, and coming off the stand mixed in promiscuously with the brethren and sisters, following the example set him by Sugar Thomas. Upon the whole, his great effort in the little town bearing his name, fell still born.

Next came Hon. John Pool who misrepresents the people of North Carolina in the United States Senate. His whole speech was replete with denunciations of the Democratic party and a "rehash of news paper articles," from beginning to end. He lauded Gov. Caldwell upon his great magnanimity in the appointment of the Bragg Committee, said Gov. Bragg was a great and good man and a true Democrat. Scott of Greensboro a shrewd Republican lawyer and Phillips a man of no party, were appointed to investigate State frauds, but that this Committee found so many Democratic rabbits they stopped their investigations. He had evidently forgotten that their proceedings were stopped by an act of the Radical Legislature, his own party; who ever heard of Radicals stopping investigations that were implicating Democrats? Pool is certainly not that kind of a man. His great anxiety to make out Swenson, who voted for Grant and Colfax, a Democrat was supremely ridiculous. His case was made out as soon as it was done, to his satisfaction and the same of his glory was reached. I will not attempt to follow him through the mud and mire; he added to his already well earned laurels in defaming his native State and in which capacity he is a success.

After him came rag tag and bobtail, both Trueheart and Tray, and thus ended the great and glorious day. Our people were thoroughly aroused and will do their whole duty the first Thursday in August and November.

Hasily, WILSON.

DOOLITTLE AND MILLER.

Ratification Meeting in Cabarrus—Doolittle on Boutwell—Over the Bloody Chasm—Eloquent Speech of Ex-Senator Miller—Cabarrus for Our Ticket.

CoxCORD, N. C., July 18, 1872.

The Conservatives of Cabarrus had an enthusiastic ratification of Greeley and Brown to day. Ex-Senators Doolittle, of Wisconsin, and Miller, of Georgia, were present and addressed the audience at length, ably, eloquently and effectively.

Senator Doolittle being introduced, spoke substantially as follows:

"FELLOW-CITIZENS:—The issue is made up. We are no longer compelled by argument to prove what it is. Mr. Greeley, in his letter, accepted the nomination in the confident trust that the masses of our countrymen, North and South, have agreed to clasp hands across the bloody chasm which has so long divided them, forgetting that they have enemies in the joyful consciousness that they are, and must, henceforward remain brethren."

Mr. Boutwell, yesterday, at Greensboro, in a speech written and printed at Washington before he came here, said: "We are advised to clasp hands over the bloody chasm made by the war. I trust to give the advice." He speaks for the Grant party. Mr. Boutwell is an honest man, and a man of courage. He speaks right out, and truthfully what the Grant party represents, protests against these words in Mr. Greeley's letter, which more than any others stirred to the lowest depths the great American heart. Boutwell, we thank thee for that word.

Boutwell says in substance to the South:

"Gen. Grant is a great warrior, and the peace which he offers to the South is peace under the sword; the peace Russia gave to Poland, peace in chains."

While we say, the sword let us have peace, based upon reconciliation between sections and resting upon liberty, fraternity and equality, they would keep open the bloody chasm. We would close it, and bury in it forever all the hates and strifes and bitter memories of the war. We would build upon the higher and nobler sentiments of humanity; not upon fear, hate and lust for power; but upon truth, justice, and liberty, upon faith, hope and charity."

In dealing with conquered people, "magnanimity in triumph" is the teaching of all ages and of all history, and in this it agrees with the teachings of the New Testament. Love is stronger than hate.

I have said Mr. Boutwell is a sincere man and an honest man. While he is the true representative of the best phases of this Radical party, he is a narrow man and somewhat fanatical and bigoted in his views. I propose in contrast with him to bring out some points in the character of Mr. Greeley. It has been my fortune upon old issues and questions, to differ widely and even violently with him. If I had prejudiced, they would be against him rather than for him.

Therefore I speak of him only, as it is due to truth, and to history that I should.

Mr. Doolittle then reviewed in full the controversy between the narrow-minded Republicans of New York, and Mr. Greeley on the question of amnesty and his bailing of Davis, and then entered into a discussion of the great principles involved in the platform of the Liberal and Democratic parties.

His speech was an able statesmanlike and eloquent defence of the sacred principles of Civil Government and the Constitution. Liberty. The tendency of Grant's Administration to a centralized despotism was pointed out with a pencil of light, and the assaults of the Radical party upon the Constitution were exposed at length and in detail.

Ex-Senator Miller, of Georgia, being introduced, began his speech by showing how liberty had always been established, and that liberty regulated by laws is to be the highest ambition of any people. He then spoke of the two great American ideas of the rights of the State and Federal Government, spoke of the "stretch of power" of the Congressional legislation for the past ten years, and thought that the administration in enforcing the laws might become even more dangerous and usurping than the Legislation of Congress, "and," said he "we beg of the people of North Carolina that they will give no aid in the extension of the Federal usurpation; but struggle against the entering wedge of 'Despotism.'" He reviewed Gen. Grant's administration, and said all his acts have the stamp of a tyrant. Military men are not remarkable for their obedience to law, and above all, the country needed a civilian at the head of affairs just at the time Gen. Grant was elected.

He reviewed the reconstruction of Georgia, the kullux bill, showed how peaceable Gen. Grant represented the South to be during his visit here after the war; discussed Grant's despotism of martial law in South Carolina, and showed that in fact the whole of General Grant's administration was entered into the condemnation of the people of North Carolina. He referred to Grant's nepotism, and reviewed it most damagingly. The real issue for the country was "a government of law, and not government of the sword." The South had done everything the United States government had asked to bring about this result. He then told us at length what grand and noble benefits to our country the Liberal movement would accomplish, and closed with a highly applauded and amusing peroration to the ladies.

Both efforts were able expositions of the tyranny and corruption of the administration and Republican party, and were received with marked attention, enthusiastically applauded and will produce good results.

The meeting unanimously ratified the nomination of Greeley and Brown for the next President and Vice President of the United States.

Put down honest and quiet Cabarrus a large majority for our ticket. R. M.

A CARD.

To the people of North Carolina: In view of the approaching election, and my present relation to them, I deem it worth while to inform the people that my attention has been called to a scurrilous and libelous paper, extensively circulated in this State, entitled "Rad And Circulate."

This paper is anonymous, and does not purport to have the sanction of any Editor, Publisher, political Committee or any body, but it is sent to the people under the Congressional frank of Hon. John Pool United States Senator.

It appropriately makes its first appearance in an obscure weekly paper, published in Washington City, called the "National News Era," edited by a negro named Fred Douglass.

The circular is infamously false, scandalous, and criminal. It imputes to me and other gentlemen, some on and others off the Democratic Conservative ticket for this State, the most infamous crimes against society and individuals, and it is so false, wanton and criminal, that it is not surprising that it is sent out to accomplish what evil it may without apparent sanction of or attaching amenability to, any one.

It is so monstrously false and scandalous that I was amazed to learn that it was sent out to the people under the frank of Mr. Pool, and I therefore enquired of him, by letter, if it was so sent with his knowledge and consent. He informed me it was, but says it was a "rehash" made up in such an artful way as to charge in terms, by suggestion, artful argumentation, and insinuation against me and others, the most disreputable crimes and conduct against the people and State; and it illustrates a species of desperate and disreputable parizan warfare that can not be tolerated, much less justified, among a civilized people; nor do I believe the people of this State of any political party will do so.

So far as I am informed the Radical papers of the State, faithful as they have been of misrepresentation and falsehood have not republished it.

I deem it due to the people and myself to say for the benefit of any such as might be misled by it, that in so far as it refers to myself the paper is in every material respect absolutely FALSE, SCANDALOUS, AND LIBELOUS, and I believe it is so in reference to the other gentlemen assailed.

In vindication of myself against this wanton attack, it is my purpose to bring suit against Pool, in the Superior Court of Wake, reserving to myself to take such other steps in the future as may be deemed proper.

I am more than willing that the truth shall be ascertained by a judicial trial, and to the end, that professional politicians may learn that they cannot assail innocent men in such a savage way with impunity, I will give Mr. Pool the opportunity to make good the charges in the anonymous paper, if he can do so.

It has been suggested that such publications are legitimate in political contests like the present. This may be so according to the code of morals of a class of desperate political adventurers, but it is not so, in my judgment, among gentlemen, or a civilized and virtuous community. Nor do I believe the people of North Carolina of any party will endorse such shameful and groundless assaults upon innocent men, because they happen to be put forward by hundreds of their fellow men for high, responsible and honorable offices.

The paper referred to is a base and criminal prostitution of the freedom of the press to accomplish the base purposes of deceiving and misleading the popular mind. This good and patriotic men will not do, and the people of all classes may well distrust those who attempt it. A. S. MERRIMON.

Raleigh, July 8th, 1872.

TOWN OWNERS.

Over fifty families who come to North Carolina through my Agency within the last eighteen months have bought Farms, Timber and Mineral Lands. A much larger number have visited this State, many of whom will return and settle. Others are arriving every week. I have many inquiries for IMPROVED FARMS of all sizes near Raleigh. I have at present several special inquiries for LARGE TRACTS OF TIMBERLAND near Railroad or navigable river for lumbering, also for WHITE OAK TIMBER. Owners of such farming and timber lands who wish to sell should address me without delay.

THERE IS NO DEATH.

There is no death! The stars go down
To rise upon some fairer shore;
And bright, in heaven's jeweled crown,
They shine forevermore.

There is no death! The dust we tread
Shall change beneath the summer showers,
To golden grain or mellow fruit,
Or rainbow tinted flowers.

The granite rocks disorganize,
And feed the hungry moss they bear;
The forest leaves drink daily life
From out the wondrous air.

There is no death! The leaves may fall,
And flowers may fade and pass away;
They only wait through wintry hours
The coming of May-day.

There is no death! An angel form
Walks o'er the earth with silent tread;
And bears our best loved things away,
And then we call them "dead."

He leaves our hearts all desolate,
He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers,
Transplanted into bliss, they now
Adorn immortal bowers.

The birdlike voice, whose joyous tones
Make glad the scenes of sin and strife,
Sings now an everlasting song
Around the tree of life.

Where'er he sees a smile so bright,
Or heart too pure for taint and vice,
He bears it to that world of light,
To dwell in paradise.

Born unto that undying life,
They leave us but to come again;
With joy we welcome them the same,
Except their sin and pain.

And ever near us, though unseen,
The dear immortal spirits tread;
For all the boundless universe
Is life—there is no death!
